1. Welcome/Introductions

- Committee presented a brief review on Bagley-Keane rules.

2. Public Input

- A self-advocate expressed satisfaction with her transition to Self-Determination and offered peer support to others. She also indicated that she felt sending out mailers was not an efficient way to reach the community and that online platforms should be the focus instead.

3. Approve outstanding minutes

May minutes approved. First motion by Chris, second by Horacio.

4. San Diego Regional Center Report

- Suzy provided updates on current enrollment numbers (59 full enrolled) and progress with orientations available to community – 162 individuals have completed orientation since June 1st.
- Non-English-speaking communities still comprise small percentage of those moving forward with Self-Determination.
- Informational meetings continue monthly.
- Orientation will be available in two parts by the end of July – a recorded video that can be accessed at any time and a live session with SDRC/SDLAC members.
- Person-Centered Plan/Independent Facilitator/Transition Supports funding approved by DDS, up to $2,500.

5. SCDD Statewide Advisory Board Report

- June 22nd meeting held. No significant updates.

6. Implementation Funds Spending Plan Updates

- LAC Project Coordinator identified and will attend next LAC meeting.

7. Future Meeting Schedule

- August 19th, 5:30pm

8. Future Agenda Items

- Project Coordinator for LAC funds – introduction.
- Outreach to non-English-speaking communities.

Minutes respectfully submitted by Suzy Requarth
